

VISION, MISSION and VALUES

of the Office of Inspector General

The Office of Inspector General (OIG) exists as a statutorily created independent and objective unit within the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), the purpose of which is to conduct audits and investigations; provide leadership and coordination to promote economy, efficiency, and effectiveness and prevent fraud in USDA's programs and operations; and keep the Secretary and the Congress informed as to deficiencies in such programs and operations. USDA's mission is to provide leadership on food, agriculture, natural resources, and related issues based on sound public policy, the best available science, and efficient management. OIG, though independent, must work toward USDA's effectiveness to serve its statutory purpose.

VISION

OIG will be a trusted contributor to the value, safety, and integrity of American agriculture.

MISSION

OIG's mission is to promote effectiveness and integrity in the delivery of USDA agricultural programs.

CORE VALUES

- (1) We value trust, so we will conduct ourselves with integrity and objectivity and believe in each other.
- (2) We value respect, so we will treat all individuals fairly and recognize each person's dignity through our words and actions.
- (3) We value employees, so we will balance personal obligations and professional commitments to attain results.
- (4) We value teamwork, so we will work together with our colleagues, partners, and stakeholders in all that we do.
- (5) We value results, so we will find means by which we can maximize our efficiency and effectiveness.
- (6) We value progress, so we will encourage and recognize innovation, creativity, and continuous improvement.
- (7) We value courage, so we will recognize our duty and act responsibly.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

ANNUAL BUSINESS PLAN
FISCAL YEAR 2005
October 1, 2004 - September 30, 2005

FOREWARD

I am pleased to issue the United States Department of Agriculture, Office of Inspector General's (OIG) first Annual Business Plan (ABP).

To me, it represents the end of a year filled with achievements and the start of another year full of challenges and opportunity for all of us at OIG. Last year saw us implement a strategic plan that is very different from previous plans. We set a new direction and goals for OIG. With this ABP in place for fiscal year (FY) 2005, we begin a year of operations and initiatives that have been selected to further the goals of the OIG Strategic Plan for FY 2004-2008.

This year's ABP takes cross-functional approaches to mission programs and includes the work of OIG's administrative and staff offices. It provides the entire organization a chance to work together on a variety of initiatives with a clear understanding of the expected outcomes as well as the strategic purpose of our individual and collective efforts.

The positive, timely, and results-driven change we expect to result from the strategic plan will result from the specific actions each of us undertakes to support it on a daily, weekly, and annual basis. I look forward to reporting our accomplishments at the end of FY 05.

Introduction

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), Office of Inspector General's (OIG) Strategic Plan for FY 2004-2008 established our mission, vision, goals, and areas of emphasis for the next five years. In so doing, it set the direction for OIG to provide a worthy return on the United States taxpayers' investment by asking the following critical questions of all the work that we plan to undertake: Are we addressing the most important matters, and are we getting results?

The FY 05 work that OIG intends to undertake in support of our current strategic plan is presented in this Annual Business Plan (ABP).

Planning Framework

This plan was developed by assessing proposed work's alignment with OIG's strategic direction. Additionally, discretionary work referrals to OIG throughout the FY 05 performance year will be similarly assessed.

Below is the framework used to identify the work we will undertake in FY 05.

1. Ensure consistency with our mission. OIG's mission is to promote effectiveness and integrity in the delivery of USDA agricultural programs.
2. Consider contribution to our ideals and vision. OIG's vision is to be a trusted contributor to the value, safety, and integrity of American agriculture.
3. Address USDA's greatest risks and key challenges. Key Challenges identified by OIG are (1) Safety, security, and public health, (2) Integrity of benefits and entitlements programs, and (3) Management of public resources.
4. Remain consistent with our goal-oriented approach to risk reduction. OIG's strategic goals are (1) Support USDA in the enhancement of safety and security measures to protect USDA and agricultural resources and in related public health concerns, (2) Reduce program vulnerabilities and enhance integrity in the delivery of benefits to individuals, (3) Increase the efficiency and effectiveness with which USDA manages and employs public assets and resources including physical and information resources, and (4) Ensure OIG readiness.

5. Emphasize and identify work that is critical and likely to have significant results. OIG's areas of emphasis are (1) Public health and safety, (2) Physical and research security, (3) Information technology security and management, (4) Farm programs, and (5) Employee corruption.

Appendix A lists Web sites that contain additional background information on the development of OIG's strategic and annual plans.

Resources and Organization

The work proposed for this ABP was also assessed in terms of the availability of the necessary resources to accomplish it. OIG's FY 05 appropriation is $78,289,000. Our anticipated staffing level is approximately 632 staff years. Appendix B describes our current organizational structure and functional responsibilities.

FY 05 Work Plan

OIG's Strategic Plan for FY 2004-2008 identifies four strategic goals. The first three goals are business goals that directly address our mission and our external effect. The fourth goal is a management goal and considers management systems and OIG's continued ability to address the three business goals.

Audit, investigative, and crosscutting OIG work to support these goals have been identified for performance during FY 05 and listed below is a summary of the work planned in support of each of the identified strategic goals.

Goal 1 - Support USDA in the enhancement of safety and security measures to protect USDA and agricultural resources and in related public health concerns

Investigative Work

We will devote about 15 percent of our investigative resources to this goal in FY 05, and our focus includes the investigation of threats to the food supply, the agricultural sector, USDA employees, and national security. Priority work in FY 05 will include the following:

- Investigation of threats involving the safety of meat, poultry, or egg products to ensure the timely response and appropriate, prompt corrective action necessary to protect the public from ill effects of food tampering or tainted food.
- Investigation of animal, animal product, plant, and plant product smuggling that may introduce devastating pests and diseases into the American agricultural sector.
- Investigations coordinated with joint terrorism and financial task forces throughout the nation in support of homeland security efforts, which target funds transferred overseas.
- Protection of USDA employees and facilities from threats to safety and security, including investigations of Forest Service (FS) firefighter deaths and violent assaults on employees.

Audit Work

We plan to devote 16 percent of our audit resources to this goal in FY 05, and our audit focus includes the assessment of management control systems which ensure that the Department is effectively protecting both the consumer and the Nation's agricultural resources. Audit and related work to be performed in FY 05 include the following:

- The second and third phases of monitoring USDA's implementation of the Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy (BSE) Surveillance Program.
- A review of the effectiveness of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service's surveillance over animal disease eradication programs.
- An evaluation of the effectiveness of the Food Safety and Inspection Service's in-plant performance system.

Our audit work will also focus on Homeland Security and the continued evaluation of the effectiveness of the Department's actions in coordinating and communicating increased security controls Departmentwide and with other Federal departments. Related work to be performed in FY 05 includes the following:

- Reviews of USDA's involvement and implementation of its responsibilities as part of Government-wide initiatives under Homeland Security Presidential Directive No. 9, which requires the provision of the best protection possible against a successful attack on the United States agriculture and food system.

- Review of USDA's implementation of provisions of the Bioterrorism Act (exclusive of listed agents and toxins).
- The second phase of reviews of USDA's implementation of the listed agents and toxins regulations.
- Continued reviews of USDA's controls over genetically engineered organisms.

Goal 2 - Reduce program vulnerabilities and enhance integrity in the delivery of benefits to individuals

Investigative Work

We plan to direct about 60 percent of our investigative resources to this goal in FY 05, and our focus includes threats to the integrity and effectiveness of USDA benefits programs. Priority work in FY 05 will include the following:

- Investigations of allegations of criminal activity in farm programs, such as crop insurance fraud, payment limitation fraud, and illegal conversion of mortgaged property.
- Investigations of allegations of criminal activity in nutrition programs, such as large-scale food stamp benefit and Women, Infants, and Children's voucher trafficking, and fraud in school lunch, commodity, and other feeding programs.
- Investigations into allegations of criminal activity in rural development programs, such as loan fraud and embezzlement of project funds.

Audit Work

We plan to devote almost 30 percent of our audit resources to this goal in FY 05, and the focus includes examination of improper payments and the effectiveness of internal quality control systems. Audit and related work to be performed in FY 05 include the following:

- Evaluation of State agency corrective action plans to address quality control review error rates in the Food Stamp Program and the resulting improper payments.
- Continued monitoring of Electronic Benefits Transfer systems for the Food Stamp Program to determine if controls are in place and newly implemented systems are functioning as designed.

- Reviews of the Risk Management Agency's (RMA) crop bases on lands with conservation easements.
- Reviews of the Farm Service Agency's (FSA) direct and counter-cyclical program.
- An evaluation of the effectiveness of FSA's quality control systems in assessing producer compliance.
- Reviews of the Rural Utilities Service's Broadband Grant and Broadband Loan Programs.

Crosscutting Work

Additional OIG work in support of Goal 2 will focus on identifying risk indicators to increase OIG's and USDA's ability to prevent or detect program abuse and criminal activity. Related work to be performed in FY 05 will include the following:

- Study crop insurance fraud to identify options, models, and capabilities to address program vulnerabilities.
- Study overseas transfers of USDA program funds to identify options, models, and capabilities to address program vulnerabilities.

Goal 3 - Increase the efficiency and effectiveness with which USDA manages and employs public assets and resources including physical and information resources

Investigative Work

We will devote about 25 percent of our investigative resources to this goal in FY 05, and our focus includes allegations involving potential criminal violations that have employee corruption or fraud implications. Priority work in FY 05 will include the following:

- Investigation of bribery and other significant criminal activity involving USDA employees.
- Investigation of allegations of criminal misuse of Government computers by employees, including accessing and downloading child pornography.

Audit Work

We will direct about 54 percent of our audit resources to this goal in FY 05, and our audit focus includes the following:

- Audits of the FY 04 financial statements for the six stand-alone agencies and USDA's consolidated statements.
- Monitoring of USDA's implementation of a cost-accounting system.
- Evaluation of the adequacy of security over USDA's Information Technology resources to ensure that they comply with requirements under the Federal Information Security Management Act.
- Continuing reviews of the National Information Technology Center and the National Finance Center general controls to assess if the controls are in place and operating effectively.
- Evaluation of RMA's data mining efforts.
- Validation of RMA's 2003 data acceptance system processing controls.
- Reviews of FS' Firefighting Contract Crews under the National Fire Program.
- Reviews of implementation of FS' Healthy Forest Initiative.

Crosscutting Work

Additional OIG work in support of Goal 3 will focus on the level of adherence to USDA requirements by USDA compliance staffs. Related work to be performed in FY 05 includes the following:

- Identify compliance requirements and recommend methods for adherence to them and options to improve where necessary.

Goal 4 - Ensure OIG readiness

Crosscutting

OIG will use a cross-functional approach in support of Goal 4 for FY 05 to develop critical capabilities in the areas of risk management, human capital, information technology, financial management, and internal and external communication. Related work to be performed in FY 05 includes the following:

- Establish an OIG-wide approach to risk management that includes development and implementation of a comprehensive Emergency Response Program; development and implementation of an Inspection Division approach that aligns quality control efforts with internal risk management concerns; and development and implementation of a formalized project methodology.
- Development and implementation of a Human Capital Program to include a Management Training Program; continued implementation of audit and investigative core competencies; faster recruitment through use of an automated recruitment system; and improved motivation through more clearly and consistently tying awards to results.
- Expand OIG's information technology capability by upgrading the OIG telecommunications infrastructure; develop automated systems for audit work papers and investigations case management; implement advanced electronic filing/hotline management system; and deploy the E-Travel System.
- Restructure the OIG financial management program by revising the annual financial planning processes and studying budget and procurement operations to identify improvements and efficiencies.
- Improve OIG external and internal communications by formalizing the Congressional Relations Programs and developing a monthly communication for Congressional stakeholders; formalizing the Media Relations Program and developing a monthly communication for frequent media contacts; reviewing and updating OIG directives and guidance system for currency and compliance; and enhancing OIG Internet and Intranet presence.

FY 05 Performance Commitment, Measurements, and Reporting

For tracking and reporting purposes, the FY 05 Work Plan has been organized into seven OIG initiatives. For each FY 05 initiative, a performance indicator, performance objectives (e.g., tasks and projects), and a responsible unit have been identified. Though we recognize that unanticipated circumstances or events may require us to adjust timeframes and priorities, OIG is committed to performing the work as described below.

Initiatives	Performance Indicators	Performance Objectives	Responsible Unit
Initiative 05-1: Implement OIG's Audit and Investigative Work Plans for FY 05	Decreased vulnerability in USDA program areas	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Execute OIG's Annual Audit Plan (see Appendix E) • Execute OIG's Investigative Program for FY05 	Audit Investigations
Initiative 05-2: Risk Management Indicators Identification	Increased ability to prevent or detect USDA program fraud and criminal activity and to reduce program costs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Study crop insurance fraud indicators to identify options, models, and capabilities to address vulnerabilities • Study overseas transfers of USDA program funds to identify options, models, and capabilities to address vulnerabilities • Determine level of compliance with USDA requirements by USDA compliance staffs 	Planning and Special Projects (P&SP)

Initiatives	Performance Indicators	Performance Objectives	Responsible Unit
Initiative 05-3: Human Capital Program Development and Implementation	Increased capacity to meet mission requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop Human Capital Plan that includes recruitment, diversity, training, retention, performance recognition, and succession planning 	Policy Development and Resources Management (PD&RM)
Initiative 05-4: Information Technology Expansion	Reduction of staff hours applied to information production and administration and increase of staff hours available for tasks requiring human cognitive ability	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Upgrade OIG telecommunications infrastructure • Develop automated systems for audit work papers • Develop automated systems capability for investigations case management • Implement advanced electronic filing/hotline management system • Deploy E-Travel System 	PD&RM
Initiative 05-5: Financial Management Restructure	Increased ability to plan for and execute critical expenditures and fund recurring operating costs within the constraints of fiscal year spending	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Study budget and procurement operations to identify improvements and efficiencies • Revise annual financial planning processes 	PD&RM
Initiative 05-6: Strategic Organizational Alignment	Increased staff and action response rates to critical operational, strategic, and communication issues	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Establish an OIG-wide approach to risk management, planning, and project management • Develop and implement a comprehensive Emergency Response Program 	P&SP Investigations

Throughout the FY 05 performance year, scheduled reporting will be required to measure progress toward the performance objectives identified for work under this ABP.

Adjustments may be made to reflect shifting priorities, increased or reduced resources, or other circumstances that may arise.

Conclusion

Every effort was made in the development of this ABP to ensure realistic assessment of the planned work's strategic alignment and importance, anticipated outcomes, and resource requirements. We believe it represents a balanced and achievable set of performance objectives for FY 05 and will allow the development of systems and capabilities to occur without negative impact upon the continuing operations of the functional and staff offices.

As with any plan, it is subject to change when necessary to allow OIG to remain responsive to critical or emerging issues and manage risks appropriately.

APPENDIX B

OIG Organization Chart and Functional Responsibilities

*Provides services to Financial & IT Operations

Line Functions:

Investigations

Investigations is responsible for conducting investigations of allegations of criminal activity, waste, abuse, and serious employee misconduct in the programs and operations of USDA. This requires the conduct of investigations, preparation of investigative reports, assistance in preparing for court proceedings, and followup with the USDA agencies involved. Investigative work is intended to result in appropriate actions to resolve allegations and to prevent and deter future instances of illegal or fraudulent acts or misconduct.

The planned distribution of investigative resources for FY 05 work is broken down along USDA agency lines in Appendix C.

Audit

Audit examines and verifies the economy and efficiency of USDA agency operations, their effectiveness in achieving program results, their compliance with applicable laws and regulations, and their fairness in reporting their financial operations. In addition to audits performed by OIG staff, Audit contracts with certified public accountants for some audits and oversees the quality of the work of auditors under contract to other agencies of USDA.

OIG auditors conduct their work in accordance with Government Auditing Standards: June 2003 Revision (i.e., "Yellow Book"), GAO-03-673G, published by the U.S. Government Accountability Office in June 2003 and in accordance with the professional standards set by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

The planned distribution of audit resources for FY 05 work is broken down along USDA agency lines in Appendix D.

Support Functions:

Though the work of the audit and investigative organizations has the most direct relationship to OIG's strategic goals, critical support to the mission areas is required to get the job done and make OIG effective. In developing this ABP and the work plan to follow, we realized the importance of identifying and including all work to be performed by OIG in FY 05 including that of the support units.

The resource management, legal, inspection, and planning offices provide services in the following areas.

Policy Development and Resources Management

Policy Development and Resources Management provides the administrative infrastructure for asset management, budget formulation and execution, financial management, human resources, information technology, and policy preparation for the OIG. The work of PD&RM results in people, money, technology and equipment, and policies being in place so that the work of OIG can be performed effectively and efficiently.

Legal Staff

The Legal Staff provides legal advice on issues arising in the course of audit and investigative activities and provides legal advice and representation on administrative and management issues. This office is also responsible for congressional and media relations, managing OIG's ethics program, and managing OIG's Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and Privacy Act program.

Inspection Division

The Inspection Division conducts systematic and independent reviews and investigations of the operations of OIG. Reviews are generally focused on management and internal controls, and investigations are generally in response to allegations of OIG employee misconduct or mismanagement issues.

Planning and Special Projects

The Planning and Special Projects office leads OIG efforts to develop and communicate results-oriented goals and strategies in order to best plan OIG work and activities.
